MINISTERS SCORE SOCIAL EVILS HARD

Cards and dancing furnished the theme for two local pastors yesterday and forceful sermons were preached on the subject. Rev. H. O. MacDonald pastor of the Presbyterian church at the morning hour took for his text "Standing Square For Christ," and he took the opportunity to tell his congregation without mincing words just where the church stands in relation to these so-called pastimes.

Mr. MacDonald preached one of the most earnest and sincere sermons he has ever delivered from his pulpit. It was from the heart and made more forceful by the fact that the pastor's own trying experiences were pictured in such a manner that even the most garceful dancer or skillful card player within reach of his voice could not help but take to heart many of the facts that he presented. The dance hall and the card table, the speaker said, formed the paramount issue with which the Church has to battle. He told how these pastime amusements sap the very life out of the Church, destroy church workers and, rob the prayer meeting and dispel the spiritual atmosphere in God's house. The congregation was made up of many who have never been able to see the sin connected with these so-called pleasures, as well as other who have indulged moderately, and those who believe that such amusements from no part of the life of a sincere christian. All listened attentively to what the pastor had to offer and it is needless to say there was and still is much comment pro and con.

The personal work in connection with the revivals brought many of the pastors face to face with conditions which forced the presentation of this issue at this time, for the pastors and their workers claim they have had to evade the answer to many questions directly traced to the dance hall and the card table.

In the afternoon Rev. Hughes preached on the same theme to a congregation of women only at the Christian church. He spoke of the dance and cards in relation to the Church and religion, and scored the mothers who care more for social pleasures than they do for their church or their home. He said, "some mothers would not forego their worldly pleasures if they knew their course would send their daughters to hell." The eloquence of yesterday has excited much comment in town. Yesterday's sermon by Rev. MacDonald was a prelude to a series which will follow along the same line and will characterize a revival service of two weeks which will be held in the church.

CANDIDATES GETTING AS THICK AS HOPS

Candidates are beginning to flock to Monessen preparing to get the big vote over here, to boost in the April primaries. Monessen gave the largest Republican vote of any town in the county last fall, and this makes candidates look this way with an appealing eye. All three of the senatorial candidates have been here. Last week Chester D. Sensenich was over and spent two or three days here circulating among his many friends. He is making an active canvass.

Saturday evening Denna C. Ogden accompanied by District Attorney Dom and Assistant N. A. Cort, arrived in town, and they met many friends. Mr. Ogden was campaigning and received many words of encouragement from his staunch friends here. The party returned to Greensburg the same night.

VALLEY PRESS CLUB MET HERE SATURDAY

The Monongahela Valley Press association met in Monessen Saturday evening and took supper at the Grand Hotel. Manager Preach had prepared a few extras and arranged the dining room so that they all could be at the same table. Twenty members were present including a representative of every paper in the upper valley. After supper there was a business meeting lasting about an hour. The next meeting will be held in Roscoe in March when the association will be guests of Joe T. S. Cowan, editor of the Ledger.

Evangelistic Services This Week

Evangelistic services will begin this evening in the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Eighth street, and he continued every evening during the week. Rev. Eveler, the pastor will be in charge of the meetings and a most cordial invitation is extended to every one to attend.

SPECIAL FEATURES THIS WEEK AT THE LUNA

On next Friday and Saturday, March 1st and 2nd, the management of the Luna theatre has secured for its patrons, two of the biggest feature films ever brought to this city. "The Danites," from the pen of McKee Rankin, given in every detail with a cast of over 500 people. On Saturday, the latest European sensation "Foul Play" which is said to rival the great detective story "Zigomar," will be shown complete in three reels. Nothing has been spared in the production of this feature film and it is being brought here at a great expense. Admission to both shows will be the regular price, 5 cents. Come, bring your family and your friends. 22-2t

SUCCESSFUL RAIDS ARE MADE BY LOCAL OFFICERS SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Gambling and bawdy houses got a blow. Saturday night and Sunday night were watch nights for Chief John Wheatley and his corps of officers as well as collection nights for Burgess Reamer. One gambling joint was pulled both Saturday and Sunday nights. The place is located over the Idle Hour pool room on Fifth street with entrance on the alley. This has long been known as a hold-out place for the fellows who indulge in the game.

Burgess Reamer has had the place under suspicion for some time and when a few weeks ago he declared for better moral conditions this was one of the places to be guarded. In justice to the boys who conduct the Lincoln club it may be said that their rooms have no connection with this raid. But the fact that it was pulled on two nights in succession shows a desire to conduct a business of this character in defiance of the officers and the law. The proprietor was required to put up $25.00 while the other six were allowed their liberty until the hearing, on a forfeit of $10.00. The case will come up tomorrow morning.

Saturday night also, there was an alleged illicit house raided on Third street and Catarine Rosocie and Carmello Ferre were brought before the burgess. The woman put up a forfit of $50.00 while the man was required to deposit $100.00 pending a hearing. This place as well as the gambling joint has been under police observation for some time. These arrests are only the starter for a cleaner and better condition in the town.

Cheapers Steel Production.

A German inventor has discovered a new process for making steel which is said to be equal in every point to crucible steel, although made without cricibles, and which is becoming a competitor of electrosteel because, while of equal standard in quality, its cost of production is supposed to be only one-tenth that of electrosteel.

LADY INJURED AT THE STAR THEATRE

Miss Edna McIntyre of the Sutton, McIntyre and Sutton vaudeville team showing at the Star the latter part of last week met with a painful accident during the progress of the show on Saturday afternoon on the stage of the theatre. Miss Sutton was being whirled around in one of the many thrilling acrobatic feats in the act when she suddenly became entangled in some way and was thrown to the floor. After being carried to her dressing room she fell into a swoon and the act was unable to continue any further. A physician was called and the young lady revived sufficiently to be taken to her hotel. The act was able to go on again in the evening after a few hours rest had revived Miss Sutton and although still weak from the effects of her afternoon's experience, she was able to go through with her part of the performance.

At the Olympic

"Over The Hills" an interesting comedy with its setting among the wilds of the Rocky mountains is being shown at the Olympic today. A young girl masquerades as a boy and falls in love, giving rise to a new and refreshing plot with many dramatic situations. "Wanted A Wife," an interesting drama of especial merit, and "For Her Father's Sake," a very beautiful picture showing how everyone, no matter who, should make a sacrifice for their parents' sake.

TOMORROW

Three first class pictures will be shown at the Olympic theatre Tuesday. "The Patriotic Songs," a great parade story. No loyal American, or any person for that matter, can afford to miss this most inspiring picture. Two other pictures including "Broncho Billy's Love Affair," a western story of deep interest. All this for 5 cents at the Olympic in addition to our great orchestra. 1t

He Was Not the Man

Charles Hanson, the Swede, who was arrested in Braddck last week on a charge of being a supicious character is not the same person who has been terrorizing the people on Sixth street hill. Mr. Hanson is a respectable and well to do citizen of the town and wishes this correction to be made on his behalf.

THE UNION MEETINGS ARE CLOSED

The Union evangelistic meetings which have been running three weeks in the Monessen opera house was brought to a close Sunday evening with two meetings, one in the opera house for adults and another in the Star theatre for children.

During the afternoon the special meetings in the Star theatre and Christian church for men and women were well attended.

At the opera house in the evening the auditorium and first balcony were fairly well filled. The chorus was directed by Prof. Davies, one of the opening numbers being a solo, "Some Day," by Mrs. McClelland. Prayer was offered by Rev. Alban and Jack Spade. A scripture lesson was read by Mr. Porter.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. McCormick who gave a plain, practical and helpful talk. He was followed by Mr. Spade who also offered some truths that were worth following.

Mr. Williams sang "Tell Mother I'll be There" as a solo, with deep feeling and it was much appreciated.

At the Star theatre the meeting for children was a great success, the house being crowded, to its utmost capacity. The song service was direced by Rev. Hughes, while Rev. MacDonald made an illustrated talk on "The Life of Christ." The meeting was full of interest all the way through.

Saturday night the meeting in the Baptist church was fairly well attended, considering that it was held for the benefit of persons who could not attend meetings during the week.

At the close of the Sunday night meeting at the opera house a special offerng was taken for the speakers who had worked here during the three weeks, and we learn it was very satisfactory.

Tomorrow evening the Gymnasium class of the Monessen Turn Verein will hold a select dance in the Turner hall. The Colonial orchestra will furnish the music.

Star Theatre

Three of the best acts on the circuit are billed for the Star theatre this week. Petching Brothers in a novelty musical act, "The Flower Garden," have something entirely new to offer. E. Malle in a black-face monologue promises "something different" in this line and the bill will close with Tom Eck's Bicycle Girls in a big feature act followed by moving pictures. It

The Bijou

If you have never been "Disillusioned," come to the Bijou theatre today and see how the trick is pulled off This is one of the most intensely interesting western dramas ever shown here. "Tracked Down" a thrilling detective story that reaches the top notch of suspense and holds the interest of every one. A picture that you cannot afford to miss. One other reel will be shown and special music is furnished by our orchestra. 1t

Receives Word of Sister's Death

Alex Boag, night store-keeper at the Pittsburgh Steel received a telegram this morning announcing the sudden death of his sister-in law, Mrs. Mary Orr, of Lonaconing M. D. Death occurred this morning. The deceased was aged about 70 years and was well known in this section, being a relative of Mrs. Wm. Pritchard of this place and James Frew of Charleroi, and having visited here. Mr. Boag left on the 11 o'clock train to attend the funeral.

Mrs. A. W. Datz returned Saturday evening from Pittsburgh, where she had been visiting a few days.

MADE ALL THE DIFFERENCE

Mr. Newlywed Equal to Fine Distinction Between His "Cherub" and Neighbor's "Brat."

"Our likes and dislikes are guided by the personal equation—whatever that is," commented the bachelor.

"Indeed?" queried the suffragette.

"Yes; the property we buy at a real estate forced sale is always the highest and driest, while the other fellow's property, we are willing to swear, is under water."

"Are you getting ready to argue?"

"No, I'm still unmarried. But I wanted to show how different we all feel about ourselves and our property from other people and their property. You know, I have a room in a flat with a young married couple. I have one there so that I can observe the marital—or is it marital?—existence. A couple of months ago the stork brought them a baby."

"A boy or a girl?" asked the suffragette revealing a spark of womanhood; then she added, quickly, "but never mind; it will be a voter, anyway, some day."

"On the floor below us is another baby," went on the Bachelor. "The other day the quiet of the house was disturbed by lusty yelling.

"'Is that our little cherub crying?' asked the mother.

"'No,' the father answered; 'it's the brat downstairs.'"

WOES OF THE BUSINESS MAN

Just a Sample of the Many Things That Turn His Raven Locks to Gray.

The new girl was taking dictation from the head of the firm, a Wall street broker. In the letter the gentleman was inveighing against the practices of certain get-rich-quick houses in the street.

"The firm you mention," he dictated in the course of his epistle, "have an office in an uptown hotel, but I do not consider their business legitimate. I have never had either liking or respect for bucket shops. With personal regards, I am yours very truly," he finished.

"Now you can sign that, Miss Fudge, and mail it, for I've got to leave at once." And Miss Fudge did.

The next day the boss glanced over the letter-copying book and tore his hair when he read, "I have never had either liking or respect for bucket slops." And Miss Fudge put on her hat.

The next stenographer was a young man. The boss dictated: "The deceased left neither bonds nor stocks." Any writer of stenographic pothooks knows that the word "bonds" is written almost exactly like the word which is sometimes used for "trousers." Hence the man stenographer's transcription: "The deceased left neither pants nor socks."

And the man secretary put on his hat.

TRAFFIC IN SOUTH AMERICA

How Congestion and Accidents Are Avoided in the Streets of Buenos Aires.

Buenos Aires is very much unlike our American cities. In the first place, there are no sky scrapers. The highest building does not exceed seven or eight stories. Then there are miles upon miles of streets with buildings of one story predominating. It is laid out in rectangular blocks, average about 400 feet on each side. The streets are narrow, and even in the residence section they are generally built clear up to the street line. The principal business streets, such as Florida, Cuyo, Cangallo, Bartolome Mitre, San Martin, 25th of May, etc., are only 33 feet wide, and you will wonder how the traffic is managed, says Travel. It is done in this wise: Street cars and vehicles are allowed to move only one way. On the adjoining street they move in the opposite direction. It is surprising how this plan helps to solve a serious problem of congestion. Cabs and automobiles dash along with seeming disregard of human life, yet few accidents result. A uniformed policeman is stationed at each street intersection where traffic is congested and assists in the protection of foot passengers and drivers. This police force, made up of men with Indian blood in their veins, impresses the visitor as most efficient.

Ears of Animals.

The hearing apparatus of animals is like that of human beings, but modified to suit the conditions of the animal's life. Deer, hares, and horses, like all animals whose life necessitates keen hearing, have ears shaped and set in the best way to catch faint or far-off sounds. The serpent has no ear-drums. The ear of the fish is a membraneous labyrinth connected with the bladder by a series of little bones.

Though the sense of hearing is perfect only in the higher animals, even the animals that have no ears perceive sounds. Instead of ears they are supplied with fine nerves whose function is to note and to respond to every touch; nerves whose receiving centers are different from the centers of the purely tactile impressions. All animals, including insects, have an apparatus which enables them to distinguish the approach of an enemy.—Harper's Weekly.

Monessen people tell you how they act.

Mrs. F. W. Schadwald, 634 Reed avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good kidney medicine for they have been used by my relatives and have proven of the greatest benefit. About two years ago I began to suffer from a pain in my back and being told that I had kidney trouble, I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hirsch Drug Co. They helped me from the first and before I had taken them long the pains and other difficulties had been removed. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly live up to the claims made for them."

News Notes of Society

Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Farquhar were at Monongahela Friday attending a social function at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Dunlevy. At one o'clock a four course turkey dinner was served to a most congenial company, the honor guests being Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Dunlevy. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlevy gave the dinner in honor of their son and daughter who start this week for a new country home at Boswell, Indiana. After the dinner and a social season, Mrs. Westley Rodgers entertained the company with some choice piano, mandolin and vocal renditions. It was a most enjoyable gathering.

Mr. Clyde Krepps of Belle Vernon and Miss Ruth Jones of Monessen were united in marriage at 2 p. m. Sunday, Feb. 25, 1912, at the parsonage of the Evangelical Lutheran church, Monessen, by the pastor, Rev. G. H. Eveler. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell, the former being a sister of the bride. Mrs. Krepps is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones of Schoonmaker avenue, while the groom is an employe in the wire department of the Pittsburgh Steel mill. The newly married couple will take up house keeping on Donner avenue.

Miss Annabelle Watt entertained the Bi-weekly sewing club at her home on McKee avenue Saturday afternoon. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the little guests after which a delightful lunch was served. Those present were: Eleanor Day, Ruth Kirk, Kathryn and Marion Forster, Rhudell Shuster Katherine Moore, Eleanor Kelly and Janice Greer.

The Colonial Girls of Belle Vernon have issued invitations for their first Leap Year dance to be given on next Thursday evening at the Armory of Co. B. P. I. I. on Main street, Belle Vernon. The Imperial orchestra will furnish music. Following is the committee: Misses Sue Dinsmore, Zelma Bedsworth, Leona Stephens, Ella Seiber and Blanche Daniels.

INTERESTING ITEMS

Guy Vincent was a caller in Monongahela last evening.

M. Meyers is a busines caller in Donora this afternoon.

Mrs. Alfred Tanzer and two children visited Sunday afternoon in Donora.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were Sunday visitors among relatives in Homestead.

Mrs. Max Janavitz and children were visiting relatives in McKeesport over Sunday.

Miss Clara Mitchell visited Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mabel Colvin of Donora.

Harry Worthington and Clifford Marchand of Charleroi, were callers in town yesterday afternoon.

YOUTHFUL ROBBERS ARE APPREHENDED

In rounding up Mike Chocin, Henry Troutman, Mike Tadilac and John Horn, late Saturday afternoon the police have finally captured the "Refrigerator Gang" that has been operating in the first ward for the past two months. These boys have been pilfering anything that was left within reach and taking it out to a rendezvous where a general good time was had. Only last Thursday evening the commission house of Parnelli Brothers on Donner avenue was broken into and tobacco, fruits and candy taken. Later in the evening a trip was made to the brewery where several cases of beer were "swiped" by this gang. The boys at present are confined in the lockup and will receive a hearing tomorrow morning. They will probably be sent to the reform school, it is said.

"I Am So Nervous"

How many times have you heard that expression from wife, mother or sister. In nine times out of ten, extreme nervousness in woman is caused by an unhealthy condition of the female system.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound acts promptly and thoroughly in such cases. It strengthens the nerves and muscles, heals inflammation and restores the female system to a normal healthy condition.

How the Dollar is Divided.

Usually a dollar that is paid to a telephone company is divided up as follows: Rent, 4 cents; taxes, 4 cents; interest, 6 cents; surplus, 8 cents; maintenance, 16 cents; dividends, 18 cents; labor, 44 cents.

CAREFUL MAN'S OPINION

Business men are careful about what they say—it is part of their training. Therefore when Mr. J. G. Clarke, a business man of Westchester, N. Y., answered a question about his greatly improved health his opinion may be considered correct.

He said "Having been troubled with a bad cough and bronchitis for nearly a year, I decided to take Vinol a short time ago. The cough has now disappeared and my health is very much improved.

"I certainly consider Vinol a valuable remedy and it should be kept in every home—until people try it they don't know its value."

Thousands of other intelligent people praise Vinol simply because they have found it just what they needed to drive away lingering coughs and build up their health and strength.

Vinol is a delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and is the greatest strength renewer for all who are weak and run down. We guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen, Pa.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old Folks Should Be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine

We have a safe dependable, and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitutions who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorders. We are so certain that it will relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer it with our personal guarantee that it shall cost the user nothing if it fails to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Craig's Drug Store.

LOCAL MAN SPEAKS AT McKEESPORT

William Welber, local manager of the Peoples store, spoke yesterday to the members of the McKeesport Young Men's Hebrew Association at their headquarters in the Tube City. Mr. Welber was the founder of the association and was one of the moving spirits in it until his removal here over a year ago. The subject chosen in his talk was "Forward" and a big turnout was on hand to hear him.

OFFICERS WERE KEPT ON THE JUMP

Saturday and Sunday were busy days for the police force here. Over 25 arrests are recorded on the docket. Everything from a petty theft and a disorderly conduct charge, to one of fighting is included in the informations. Murder seems to be the only thing that hasn't been committed this week and this is in a great measure due to the edict sent out by Burgess Reamer a short time ago prohibiting the use of intoxicants at the celebration of weddings, christenings and the like. Much credit is due Chief Wheatley and his officers in their attempts to stamp out vice in this community.

Arrested For Dynamiting

Philip Terpid was arrested and locked up at California Saturday on a charge of dynamiting. It is alleged that Terpid threw two sticks of carbonite explosires onto the porch of A. O. Conway, and it was only by a miracle that a tragedy was averted. By the force of the explosion Mrs. Conway and two children were thrown from their beds and badly bruised. The building was considerbly damaged but the rest of the family escaped. Terpid is an Ausrian, aged 26; is reputed to be a bad man and can neither read or write.

Need for Women Architects.

It is a practically accepted axiom that there are too few women architects, for, if there is one subject more than another in which woman's talent is required, it is domestic architecture.—From the Queen.

Why Vivien Was Jealous

By Peggy Powers

"Vivien, at all events it can't be true that you've accepted Winston Lewis' invitation to the dance?"

"How dramatic! Is there any state law about who my escort should be?"

"No, but if you wear Richard's fraternity pin and ring, it seems that it's an unwritten code that he should be your partner?"

"Even when he's the sort who meets another woman every afternoon in the most secretive clandestine manner?"

"You must have a vivid imagination," returned Richard's cousin Alice. "Richard is not a fickle fellow, but absolutely reliable and trustworthy. He hasn't eyes for any other girl but you."

"Little Buddy Beasely saw him go down the river," declared Vivien, "jump ashore, whistle some tune until a woman appeared, address her as 'Pearl,' present her with a roll of bills and call as he jumped into his canoe, 'See you tomorrow.'"

"Don't be too previous in jumping at conclusions," advised Alice. "There may be some extenuating circumstances."

Richard appeared just as Alice was leaving

"Hello, dearest," he said, grasping Vivien's hand.

"Don't touch me!" she exclaimed. "Do you think I care to share your caresses with some red-headed person whom you meet every afternoon?"

"Take a Peep at This Lavender Stone."

"What are you talking about? I've always had an antipathy for that shade of hair"

"Indeed!" answered Vivien, sadrically. "How you must hate Pearl, whom you spend all your afternoons in her society. Never will I marry any man whom I can't implicitly trust"

"Honor bright! Vivien, the reason I went down the river was to hunt clams."

"Then why were you as close as a clam about it?"

"Because an old woman made me swear to secrecy if she informed me of the place where the pearls were most abundant. In return for the secret I disposed of her pearls for her."

"Forgive me for doubting your constancy," said Vivien, as she extended her hand

"Take a peep at this lavender stone," continued Richard, as he opened his wallet. "It is a superb specimen and its value will help to furnish our little home. Here's another pearl that is nearly perfect," he whispered, "and its price will purchase a diamond ring for the only girl I love."

"No," answered Vivien emphatically. "I'd prefer the pearl; its luster and purity will remind me of your honesty and faithfulness and how foolish I was to be so suspicious and jealous."

Delightful Traveling, But—

Henry Clews, at a dinner in Newport, said of American traveling:

"It is delightful to travel in America, but I think that American porters handle our baggage a little too roughly.

"Once, at a certain station, I was amazed and pleased to hear a uniformed official shout to a burly porter:

"'Hi, what are you knockin' them trunks about like that for?'

"The porter had been lifting great trunks above his head and hurling them down onto the floor furiously; but now he stood stock still in astonishment.

"'What's that, boss?' he said.

"'What do you mean by knockin' trunks about like that?' repeated the official. 'Look at the floor, man. Look at the dents you're makin' in the concrete. Don't you know you'll lose your job if you damage the company's property?'"

Wants a Brother.

Keeper Bob Hurton found a piece of paper tied with blue ribbon in the pelican cage in Central Park in New York the other day. On the paper was written in a childish hand this appeal:

"Dear, dear, Mr. Stork. Please bring us a baby boy and don't forget. I am going to put some sugar on my window so that you will know where to come."

The note was signed "Helen Frankel, 115 East 104th street."

Little Miss Frankel has two sisters, but no brother alive. Her brother died three years ago. She is 8 years old. She wants a brother to protect her when other children slap her, she said to a visitor at her home.

Man Waylaid and Robbed

John Volz, aged 45 years, while on his way from a visit at Charleroi to his home at Moravia, was held up and brutally assaulted by two boys on Water street, Pittsburgh, at a late hour last night. The hold up occurred near the B. and O. railroad station and at a time when very few pedestrians were on the street. A sum of $15 was taken from the man in addition to several small articles of jewelry. The man was taken to the Homeopathic hospital where his injuries were attended to.
